Stipend payments for professional learning of new teachers (GACE) and aspiring leaders. Title II-A funds have been set aside in this category for all schools; however priority funding will be allocated to Targeted and Comprehensive schools. These funds will be used to assist in enabling teachers to become more effective instructors in classrooms throughout the district which will lead to increased gains in student achievement and a higher retention rate for our teachers.

MISSION	To provide healthy nutritious meals, nutrition education and wellness initiatives in support of teaching and learning.	Goal I: Student Success with Equity and Access. Goal II: Stakeholder Engagement and Communication. Goal III: Staff Effectiveness. Goal IV: Culture and Climate. Goal V: Organizational Effectiveness.
AIM	School Nutrition Services ensures that students have access to free nutritious meals during the summer months who may otherwise go hungry when schools are not in session. Food insecurity and hunger have health consequences negatively impacting the ability of children to thrive, develop and succeed.	Goal I: Student Success with Equity and Access. Goal II: Stakeholder Engagement and Communication. Goal III: Staff Effectiveness. Goal IV: Culture and Climate. Goal V: Organizational Effectiveness.
OBJECTIVES	1) To increase student participation in the summer program by facilitating community outreach & partnership: schools, parks, community & faith base organizations. 2) To positively impact students lives by alleviating food insecurity and hunger of those students most in need when meals are not available.	Goal I: Student Success with Equity and Access. Goal II: Stakeholder Engagement and Communication. Goal III: Staff Effectiveness. Goal IV: Culture and Climate. Goal V: Organizational Effectiveness.
BENEFITS	The USDA Summer program provides free meals to children 18 years and under in low income areas. The program contributes to a child's growth and development and contributes to student success in and out of the classroom.	Goal I: Student Success with Equity and Access. Goal II: Stakeholder Engagement and Communication. Goal III: Staff Effectiveness. Goal IV: Culture and Climate. Goal V: Organizational Effectiveness.
